In the Magnificent Home of English Folk learn to play and sing folk songs and impress your friends with your new found knowledge of the folk arts

Workshop Tutors:

Banjo: Ed Hicks (Sleepy Ed Hicks)

Accordion: Paul Hutchinson (Belshazzar's Feast-Hoover the Dog)

Voice: Sam Lee (The Magpies' Nest) & Tim van Eyken (Waterson:Carthy)

Workshops will be aimed at all levels of experience, learning repertoire, harmony, vocal techniques, performance techniques, and seeking to discover the natural voice

What the Folk?

Explore the breadth, depth, and wealth of folk culture.
Discover the expanse of the traditions of the English speaking world, including songs, tunes, dances, and customs indigenous to our land
- and why our Cornish fisherman behind is holding two fearsome masks!

Lecturers include:

- Malcolm Taylor OBE ~ This folk melée: Collectors, manuscripts, the oral tradition, and how to look beyond the dust
- Vic Gammon ~ Sex, drink, and death in English folk song
- Doc Rowe ~ This land of custom: same time, same place, next year
- Shirley Collins MBE ~ Songs and stories of southern country gypsies
- John Howson ~ Stepping out in East Anglia: keeping it alive
- Reg Hall ~ Irish Music in Camden Town

Plus archive film showings from the VWML a/v collection
